

Perfect Job

- 1) Being able to leave work at work after 5pm
- 2) The ability to go to work and know exactly what you will do for the day
- 3) The fewer interruptions the better
- 4) All communications happen through email/outlook so that you have a record
- 5) Make enough money that you don't have to worry about if you will have enough while waiting in line at McDonalds
- 6) One boss
- 7) No slash jobs (supervisor/engineer)
- 8) The ability to take a sick day
- 9) The right (not privilege) to take a week's vacation

.....

Anywhere that you are surrounded by cool people. I think that's the most important. Even if the job 'sucks' friends can always make it fun. Oh and i guess a nice salary too...

.....

The perfect job for me would be one that

1. pays me just enough to be able to save a bit each month,
2. doesn't force me to interact with living humans a lot,
3. allows me to sometimes listen to music or think about stuff while I'm working,
4. gives me room for a bit of creativity,
5. gives me a bit of responsibility, but not too much,
6. is likely to last until I retire,
7. is not too far away from my home so I can go there by foot,
8. allows me a fair amount of free days.

.....