One of the most talented actors that have gained many achievements is Nicholas Cage. This actor has been spending years of his life in the movie industry and able to stand as the best actor and won some awards.

Nicolas Cage has starred in so many movies such as Con Air, The National Treasure, Ghost Rider or other movies and he has always been able to give his best performance in each of his movie that he certainly is deserve to be nominated to win the Best of the Best Awards which is one of the most prestigious awards in the entertainment world. If you are a big fan of Nicholas Cage and would like to watch the BoB Awards

My favorite actress

My favourite actress is Julia Roberts. She is one of the Hollywood's brightest stars. She is a very successful actress who has starred in many films, such as "Pretty woman" and "The running bride" with Richard Gere.

Julia is tall with a perfect figure. She is in her early thirties. She has got long red curly hair, beautiful blue eyes and rather small nose. She likes wearing formally evening dressed in which she look fantastic.

Julia Roberts is a complicated person whose character has many sides. She has very outgoing personality. She likes to be in the public eye, giving interviews a journalists and allows photographers to take photos which are shown in magazines. She likes going to Hollywood parties and dancing in free times. Julia is a sociable person and loves meeting others people.

Travelling is what she likes most. She loves fast cars, however she was afraid flying by plane. She travels all over the world and experiences a new adventures. Futhermore, she is very active in work and self-confident. She got Oscar for starred in film "Pretty woman". She is also a sensitive person. For example, she helps small ill children. She transmits much money for charity. She is a person who is on diet and keep fit. She never eats fattening food, because she wants to have a good figure.

All in all, Julia Roberts is a great actress who I like watching in films. Films, in which she appears are always interesting. I hope to see a new films with her in this time.
